Mat Riordan returned today from a visit to South Texas.

George M. Brandon returned today from a visit to Houston.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Capps of Benchley went to Fort Worth today on a short visit.

The weekly meeting of the Commercial Club was held this morning at the regular hour. Nothing important was brought up. The time was spent in discussing the plan of the club to electrify the interurban and in discussing the paving on Main street.

Mesdames A. M. Waldrop, W. C. Lawson, W. B. Cline, L. H. Tucker, L. M. Hewitt, J. I. Barron, W. H. McMichael will give a tea on Thursday afternoon at 3:30 at the residence of Mrs. Waldrop, for the benefit of the Ladies' Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Church.

RESIDENCE STREET LIGHTS.

Under Reduced Price Many Are Having Them Installed and Find Them Convenient.

The City Council recently reduced the price on street lights in the residence districts to $12 a year for 60-w lights and $18 a year for 18-w lights, to be paid for by the people in the neighborhood where lights are located. The people on Dallas street have taken advantage of the offer and that street has been lighted, one light to the block, from the court house to the residence of Mrs. Winter in the southern limits of the city. The lights are not only a great improvement, but are a great convenience to the residents of the street and others who travel it. Like those who have had street lights installed in other parts of the city, they wonder how they did without them as long as they did, and would not be without them again if their price were doubled. The cost is very slight, too. A 60-w lamp makes a good light, and at $12 it is only $3 each for four residents, or less if there are more than four to pay it. Three dollars a year is only 25 cents a month, and it does not seem like a single resident of the city would object to 25 cents a month for the privilege of living on a lighted street.

FINISHING MATERIAL ARRIVED.

A large amount of the Westrumite paving material, the finishing product, has arrived, and is being unloaded. It is in liquid form in barrels and is being stored in the street between Sanders Bros. and the Lawrence Grocery Co. It was announced today that putting on the finishing surface, the last step in the paving, would begin Thursday.

THE GIRL AND THE TRAMP.

Would the explosion of a real automobile interest you? If you saw a man stealing an automobile, what would you do? Miss Flo Randall, the girl in "The Girl and the Tramp," sees a man stealing her automobile. She pluckily covers him with a gun and calls for help. "Happy Jack," a tramp, comes to her rescue. A quarrel results between Happy Jack and Philip Redman. The tramp is knocked down, Redman jumps into the automobile, pulls the crank and the automobile explodes. This all takes place in full view of the audience.

Aside from carrying a strong dramatic company, Mr. Byers has surrounded himself with three excellent singers, and they are carried as extra vaudeville between the acts. Colonial Theatre, Saturday, February 7, matinee and night. Prices, matinee 15c and 35c. Night, 25c and 75c.

HOW TO MAKE HORSES ACQUAINTED WITH AUTOS

David Buffum, an expert on horses, writes, as follows, in the current issue of Farm and Fireside about teaching horses to have no fear of automobiles:

"If one lives near a road where automobiles are constantly passing, the best thing to do is to tie such a horse securely to the roadside fence if it is high enough to prevent him from jumping over it and strong enough to prevent him from breaking it. The halter, rope and the post to which he is tied must also be strong. After standing there for several days he will be thoroughly accustomed to the passing of automobiles. If they pass with sufficient frequency he will be so used to them that he will eat his grain and scarcely notice them as they go by."

FARM FACTS.

(By Peter Radford, Texas Farmers' Union.)

Make it a point to learn something new every day.

Better production waits on a system of better marketing.

Successful farming is more dependent on brain than brawn.

No man should be content to let his farm grow meaner while he grows better.

The farm should not only produce the best pumpkins and hogs, but the best people.

The farmer who fails to profit by his mistakes loses one of the best lessons taught by experience.

The man who studies the work in which he is most interested is the man who actually gets the most out of it.

Land values are not computed on the basis of what they produce, but on the price the product calls for.
